CLINICAL REFERRAL SHEET · POST-ASSESSMENT & ONGOING

Laury Monk

MA, AMFT #158568

ADHD/ASD therapist offering creative, neurodivergent-affirming therapy online across California

Why assessors, neuropsychologists, and coaches refer to Laury: When adults (18+) or teens (13–17) receive an Autism, ADHD, or AuDHD diagnosis, or hit a wall in top-down talk therapy, they often need a steady, low-demand space to unpack late-diagnosis grief, recover from masking burnout, and build sensory safety. As a matched-neurotype therapist trained in expressive arts and relational frameworks, Laury offers weekly sessions where words are always welcome, and never forced.

Strong Referral Fit (Who Thrives Here)

Post-Assessment Integration
Newly diagnosed or self-identified Autistic, ADHD, and AuDHD adults (18+) and teens (13–17).

When Talk Therapy Stalled
Clients who are highly self-aware and could benefit from neuro-affirming, relational therapy.

Burnout & High Masking
High-achieving adults, students, women, creatives, and highly sensitive people (HSP) running on empty.

RSD, PDA & Sensory Overload
Clients needing low-demand, choice-led sessions that honor nervous-system autonomy.
